Dear Mr. Grzela,

Thanks for taking the time to write me and for enclosingnthe clipping.

I'm now 70, in impaired health, and can't begin to keep up with the litigation I've filed or the writing I want to do, so I just can't make any new investigatory efforts.

Younassume I have a staff. I'm alone.

As for lawyers, I'm not able to pay the one who handles my FOIA cases and he does that without fee, something he can't afford to do and he can't take any new cases on.

I'm sorry, but thanks.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
